

DEMON BARBERS

The Demon Barbers offer a memorable musical event. They offer a diverse repertoire – British and American popular songs, spiritual and comedic to name but a few. The musical arrangements for this five man a-cappella group bring out the best in their virtuosity. Audiences across the UK have been captivated by the DB's ability to switch musical mood – whimsical, witty, touching. Concerts have often been enhanced by specially commissioned pieces written by the Group. All this has helped the Group to re-define "light entertainment."

The DBs have performed extensively on the BBC – Sean Rafferty's "In Tune"; DEF II House Party; Jonathan Ross' "Last Resort"; Brian Matthew's "Round Midnight." Performances have also been given at Festivals like Lichfield and Buxton; many Music Clubs and schools e.g Gordonstoun and Uppingham. Even the House at Covent Garden has engaged their individual and Group talents.

Now you can listen to their blend of musical entertainment on-line at: www.demonbarbers.net

The website offers more information about the Group including their award-winning CD of music from the 30s and 40s. But to give you an idea of a typical programme now, the following may be helpful:

Dry Bones; Joshua Fit de Battle; I Got Rhythm; Bless You;
You're Getting to be a Habit with Me; Dance to your Daddy;
6 Decades of Summer; Fields of Gold; Granada;
Nobody's Moggy; Ol' Man River.

Interval.

The Sun has got his Hat on; Old Mother Hubbard; All the Time;
Mr Bassman; The Jimmy Brown Song; The Mermaid;
We'll Meet Again; Finale.

Brilliant close harmony, an engaging and highly individualistic stage presence and delightful theatrical interpretations of songs will be the blend of entertainment to expect. Rowan Atkinson said of the Group – "the funniest thing I have ever seen!" Why not visit the website for more details and to see how the DBs can complement your concert season?
